Any additional information. Eg length of build/cost of build/reason for build	The law of April 18, 2013, authorizing the construction of a new building puts an end to a long-standing discussion. Currently scattered on several different sites, all deposits and services of the BnL will be grouped on a single site in Luxembourg-Kirchberg, avenue John F. Kennedy. About 300,000 documents will be directly accessible in reading rooms. Construction began in June 2014 and is scheduled to open by the end of 2018. Architects: Bolles + Wilson, Münster (Germany)
