| Name of national library in full (in your own language and in anglicised form): | Schweizerische Nationalbibliothek
Swiss National Library |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Name of Director General with official title:</td>
<td>Marie-Christine Doffey</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| Main library address: | Hallwylstrasse 15
3003 Bern
Switzerland |
| Current logo as a .jpg: | ![Swiss National Library Logo] |
Main site – see above
Sound archives (uses only small part of the building )

Centre Dürrenmatt Neuchâtel (photo: Pino Musi)
Newspaper room -

https://www.google.co.uk/maps/place/Swiss+National+Library/

Stacks -

https://www.google.co.uk/maps/place/Swiss+National+Library/

Reading room -

https://www.google.co.uk/maps/place/Swiss+National+Library/

Lounge area
Exhibition area Centre Dürrenmatt Neuchâtel, Photo: Pino Musi
Exhibition area Main Building, Bern
Brief details on the history of your library buildings.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year (first) library building opened</th>
<th>1931 (previously in Federal Archives)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Architect of (first) library building</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Year (current) library building opened</td>
<td>1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Architect of (current) library building</td>
<td>Alfred Oeschger (1900-1963), Emil Hostettler (1887-1972) and Josef Kaufmann (1882-1962)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Any additional information. Eg length of build/cost of build/reason for build</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

1893 Survey about the creation of a Swiss National Library
1895 «Schweizerische Landesbibliothek» begins operations
1899 First reading room opened in the Swiss Federal Archives
1931 Move to the current building
1994-1997 Underground stacks east
1998 – 2001 Renovation of the main building
2005-2008 Underground stacks west

2000 Centre Dürrenmatt Neuchâtel opens
2016 Swiss National Sound Archives integrated in the Swiss National Library