

Covid-19 pandemic - impact, opportunities and challenges for inclusive national libraries

Sandra Collins

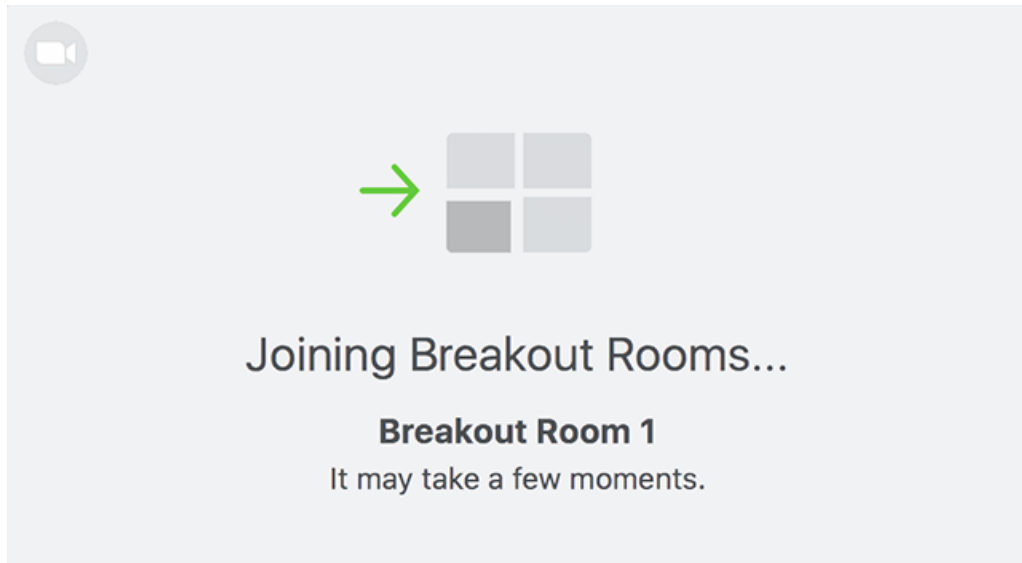

CENL AGM, 19 Oct 2020

Covid-19 pandemic

- Covid-19 has impacted many aspects of the work of National Libraries.
- It has been an uncertain and disruptive time.
- We have adapted our buildings, our behaviours and our services.
- We have demonstrated resilience, innovation and commitment.
- What are the short-term and long-term impacts on National Libraries?
- How does it impact how inclusive we are?

Let's discuss together in breakout groups. Each breakout leader will report back after the discussions.

Covid-19 pandemic

You have 55 minutes to discuss!

1. The physical library after Covid-19
with Janne Andresoo

2. Inclusive access – digital literacy
with Karin Grönvall

3. Online services – now and after the pandemic
with Mar Perez Morillo

4. Collecting – changes and opportunities
with Ivanka Stričević

5. The workforce – a national library from home?
with Tomasz Makowski