

National Libraries Now:
International online conference

September 2021
British Library

National Libraries Now

- Our aim is to promote international networking and collaboration between collections staff
- Online conference to ensure wide participation
- Multiple ways to participate: short presentations, blogs...
- Presenters will discuss innovative work with national collections
- Exchange perspectives on collection development, collections research and engagement with different audiences
- Legacy project: creation of an international network of curators and librarians in national libraries

National Libraries Now

- We will release a general call for participants early in the new year
- CENL members panel
- Please contact us with any ideas for presentations or projects you would like to share
- Mercedes.Aguirre@bl.uk and Lucy.Rowland@bl.uk