The upcoming CENL Annual General Meeting (AGM) in Ankara will focus on

THE RELEVANCE OF NATIONAL LIBRARIES FOR SOCIETY

CENL Secretariat invites you to contribute to the AGM regarding the following categories:

1. CASE STUDIES that highlight the relevance of your National Library for Society in the fields
 - a. Innovation and/or
 - b. Management and/or
 - c. Collections
2. LIGHTNING TALKS that give an insight into your National Library's latest strategic developments

Details:

1. The presentation of the CASE STUDIES will follow the key notes of the AGM and give an opportunity to highlight current developments in the fields Innovation and / or Management. The subject of your case study should therefore be linked to the general focus of the AGM and the key note speakers who will give us their thoughts on „The relevance of National Libraries for society“ from a library and a third party perspective.

Presentations: max. 15 minutes, followed by a short Q&A Presentation proposals (one page) to be sent to cenl@dnb.de.

2. The LIGHTNING TALKS will follow a presentation of CENL's new strategic priorities and will focus on National Libraries that have recently given themselves new strategic priorities or are in the process of doing so. Pick out one or two key items of your National Library's strategy for presentation.

Presentations: max. 5 minutes
Presentation proposals (half a page) to be sent to cenl@dnb.de.
